

initial household is the household of the sample person with the next lowest person number. For the selected respondent model 'initial household' means the household of the selected respondent.

Sample persons who are temporarily away from the household but who are still considered members of the household shall be covered by the survey in that household.

Persons who have not registered by mistake at the moment of data collection will be coded as '3'.