

If the person is or was enrolled to several formal education programmes at the same time, the information on the level should refer to the programme with the highest level.

For students who were on school/academic holiday during the reference period and will continue their studies after their holiday break (or plan to continue), the level should refer to the level of education attended before their holiday break.

Coding of the variable should be based on the ISCED integrated mapping which is elaborated in each country. An ISCED integrated mapping is a table including information on national educational programmes and qualifications, their main characteristics and coding in ISCED.

All questions about implementation of the ISCED in surveys can be addressed to the national ISCED coordinator who was nominated in each country to ensure coherence of the application of ISCED 2011 in different sources.

What is/was the level of the current/most recent formal education or training activity (level of the corresponding formal education or training programme)?

The question(s) for this variable should be adapted to the national phrasing of the question for the variable "Participation in formal education and training (student or apprentice) in the 'reference period'".
