

The net income series corresponds to the gross income components but the tax at source or the social insurance contributions or both are deducted.