

This variable is supposed to collect only the first wave households and to be reported annually.

In the cases that the household has moved from the previous address this information should also be collected for the households in the new address.

Please see Annex 8 to see examples of classification of dwelling types.

Suggested question:

How would you describe the main residence that your household lives in?