

Implementation:

The question(s) for this variable should be phrased by countries in a way that the concept of formal education and training – formal education programmes are recognised as such by the relevant national education or equivalent authorities – is described as fully as possible. This can be achieved by listing the formal education programmes or qualifications (or the relevant categories of these).

PE050 should be asked together with the education variables.